

Linking maritime education with the changing job market for a new generation of Baltic Sea experts

Generation BALT

International Final Conference

25. September 2014, 9.30 – 15.00 (Registration open from 8.30)

Steigenberger Hotel Sonne, Neuer Markt 2, DE-18055 Rostock

08.30 – 09.30	Registration
09.30 – 10.00	Welcome Prof. Dr. Gerhard Graf, Project Leader, University of Rostock Prof. Dr. Stefan Göbel, Vice Rector, University of Rostock Birger Schmeling, EU Officer, Mayors Office, Hanseatic City of Rostock
10.00 – 10.30	Key Note “The Importance of Education and Training for Blue Growth” Representative of the European Commission, DG for Maritime Affairs and Fisheries
10.30 – 11.00	Coffee break and Networking
11.00 – 12.30	Generation BALT Presentations “From the idea to reality – some facts about Generation BALT” Prof. Dr. Catherine Legrand, Linnaeus University “The Generation BALT Foresight Study” Dr. Kamila Mianowicz, University of Szczecin “The Generation BALT Training Programme” Prof. Dr. Rima Mickevičienė, Klaipeda University “Generation BALT and South Baltic Professionals – a perfect match” Andreas Fieber, Rostock Business and Technology Development “Blue Growth and Education outside the EU – the case of Russia/Kaliningrad” Prof. Dr. Vitaly Bondarev, Baltic Fishing Fleet State Academy of the Kaliningrad State TU
12.30 – 13.30	Lunch
13.30 – 13.45	“Lessons learned, steps ahead – Evaluation and the Generation BALT Network” Dr. Kamila Mianowicz, University of Szczecin & Dipl.-Pol. Tim-Ake Pentz, University of Rostock

Linking maritime education with the changing job market for a new generation of Baltic Sea experts

13.45 – 14.45

Panel Discussion

“The Future of Blue Growth and Maritime Education – How to improve co-operation between education institutions and the maritime industry?”

Panel: Representatives from Maritime Industry, Maritime Policy, Students, Higher Education Representatives, EU-Projects

14.45 – 15.00

Conclusion & Official Farewell & Coffee

EUROPEAN COOPERATION DAY

DAS MEER
UNSER BLAUES WUNDER

South Baltic
Blue & Green Days

#mySouthBaltic

South Baltic
PROGRAMME

Part-financed by the European Union
(European Regional Development Fund)